RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY AND ANTI-DISCRIMINATION WORKSHOP ❖

CEJI invites you to participate in a 1-day awareness workshop on Religious Diversity and Anti-discrimination. We welcome educators, school teachers, human resource professionals, public authorities, community leaders and mediators of all forms of belief and non-belief who are looking for ways to transform differences from obstacles into opportunities. This workshop, which uses highly interactive and participatory methods, is based on a non-formal education approach.

The specific objectives of the workshop are to:

- Raise participants' consciousness of the uniqueness of each individual's religious identity.
- Facilitate dialogue and sharing of experiences in the area of religion and culture.
- Increase participants' understanding of the concepts and issues related to religious diversity.
- Enable participants to recognize contemporary manifestations of stereotyping, prejudice and discrimination related to religion, with specific training activities on anti-Semitism and Islamophobia.
- Develop an appreciation for the complexity and richness of religious diversity.
- Develop individual skills and institutional strategies for creating inclusive intercultural environments.
